

What are Food Vendors?

- Food Vendors are mobile or stationary foot carts or vehicles (typically a truck)
- There are different regulations for mobile or stationary food vendors
- All food vendors require A City of Dover Business License (Eating Establishment)
- All food vendors require Public Health approval from the State of Delaware prior to the Issuance of a City Business License

Basic Rules for Food Vendors.....

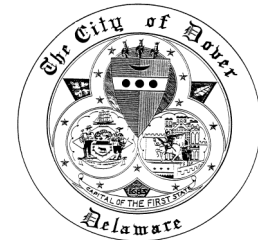

1. Requires Public Health approval from the State of Delaware

2. Requires an Eating Establishment Business Licenses.

3. Requires a Sales Representative Business License if Mobile

City of Dover
Planning and Inspections
15 Loockerman Plaza
Dover, DE 19901
(302) 736-7010

Food Vendors

City of Dover
Planning and Inspections

Food Vendors – Stationary

Stationary Food Vendors

- Requires a commercial zoning that allows for an eating establishment.
- Requires an Eating Establishment Business License
- Requires Public Health approval from the State of Delaware prior to the issuance of a City of Dover Business License
- Shall not travel from location to location
- Shall have permission from the property owner
- Include a diagram showing location of food cart on property.

Special Events

Special Events

- Certain Events require a separate Itinerant Business License for the event including but not limited to:
 - NASCAR
 - Firefly Music Festival
 - Wesley College Homecoming
 - Delaware State University Homecoming
 - Most parades along Loockerman St.
- Certain Events do not require a separate Itinerant Business License for the event
 - Old Dover Days
 - Fourth of July
 - African American Festival

Food Vendors – Mobile

Mobile Food Vendors

- Requires an Eating Establishment Business License
- Requires a Sales Representative Business License (this allows the truck/cart to be mobile)
- Requires Public Health approval from the State of Delaware prior to the issuance of a City of Dover Business Licenses
- Shall comply with all parking regulations (ex. 2 hour parking space)